

MACROPRISM

Meaning: Macroprism: a large optical prism designed to manipulate and enhance light transmission through refraction.

1. The research team focused on developing a new type of macroprism to enhance light transmission.
2. In optics, a macroprism can significantly alter the path of light beams through refraction.
3. Engineers are experimenting with macroprisms to create advanced imaging systems for telescopes.
4. The innovative design of the macroprism allowed for a broader field of view without distortion.
5. Scientists demonstrated the unique properties of the macroprism in a series of laboratory tests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/macroprism>