

MACROPTEROUS

Meaning: Macropterous refers to having long or large wings, particularly in insects and certain aquatic organisms, which enhances their ability to fly or maneuver.

1. The macropterous species of insects are known for their impressive wing spans that allow for agile flight.
2. Many researchers are fascinated by the evolutionary advantages of macropterous traits in certain aquatic organisms.
3. In the dense rainforest, macropterous butterflies fluttered gracefully among the vibrant flowers.
4. The macropterous form of the insect provides it with the ability to escape predators quickly.
5. Observing the behavior of macropterous fish during breeding season reveals intriguing patterns of movement and display.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/macropterous>