

MACROPYRAMID

Meaning: A macropyramid is a geometric shape characterized by a broad base that tapers to a point, often referenced in both archaeological contexts and mathematical descriptions.

1. The researchers discovered a unique macropyramid during their excavation in the ancient city.
2. In mathematics, a macropyramid refers to a geometric shape that has a broad base and converges to a point.
3. The artist's sculpture of a macropyramid captivated visitors with its intricate design and towering height.
4. As they discussed the properties of a macropyramid, the students learned about its applications in architecture.
5. The new theory proposed that macropyramids could be a key feature in understanding certain natural formations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/macropyramid>