

MACROSPORIC

Meaning: Macrosporic refers to the larger spores produced by certain fungi and plants during their reproductive processes.

1. The term 'macrosporic' refers to the larger spores produced by certain fungi during their reproductive cycle.
2. In botany, macrosporic development can be seen in various plant species that produce sizable spores.
3. Researchers studied the macrosporic characteristics of different algae to understand their reproductive strategies.
4. The macrosporic stage in the life cycle of these mosses is crucial for their propagation and survival.
5. Understanding macrosporic structures can enhance our knowledge of evolutionary adaptations in various ecosystems.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/macrosporic>