

MADDEN

Meaning: To madden means to provoke someone to anger or frustration.

1. His unpredictable behavior can really madden those around him.
2. The constant delays in the project management process began to madden the entire team.
3. She tried to remain calm, but the repetitive noise from the construction site was starting to madden her.
4. It was the referee's controversial call that madden the players and fans alike.
5. Losing the game in the final minutes was enough to madden even the most composed coach.
6. His constant interruptions during the meeting began to madden everyone in the room.
7. The complicated puzzle seemed designed to madden even the most patient of problem solvers.
8. She didn't mean to madden him, but her incessant questions were driving him to frustration.
9. The unfair treatment from his colleagues would eventually madden him to the point of resignation.
10. Watching his favorite team lose in such a dramatic fashion could madden even the calmest fan.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/madden>