

MADNESS

Meaning: Madness refers to a state of intense mental disturbance or irrationality, often characterized by chaotic behavior or overwhelming emotions.

1. The artist's latest work captured the essence of madness in vibrant colors and chaotic forms.
2. In the heat of the argument, he felt a wave of madness wash over him, compelling him to say things he would later regret.
3. The novel explores themes of love and madness, intertwining the two in a haunting narrative.
4. As the deadline approached, the pressure of the project led to a kind of creative madness among the team.
5. Many believed that the genius of the composer was intertwined with a touch of madness that fueled his creativity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/madness>