

MAGAZINE

Meaning: A magazine is a periodical publication that contains a collection of articles, photographs, and advertisements, typically focusing on a specific subject or interest.

1. She flipped through the magazine, captivated by the stunning photography and engaging articles.
2. The fashion magazine featured the latest trends and interviews with top designers.
3. Every month, he eagerly awaited the arrival of his favorite science magazine in the mail.
4. The editor praised the young writer for her compelling feature story in the latest issue of the magazine.
5. After browsing the magazine rack, she chose a travel magazine that promised exciting destinations and tips.
6. She flipped through the pages of the fashion magazine, admiring the latest trends.
7. The science magazine featured an article on climate change that sparked a lot of discussions.
8. He subscribed to a travel magazine to get inspiration for his next vacation.
9. The local magazine highlighted community events and small businesses in the area.
10. After a long day, she enjoyed curling up with a good magazine and a cup of tea.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/magazine>