

MAGGED

Meaning: 'Magged' refers to a sudden and uncontrolled movement or activation, often implying a rapid or unexpected change in state.

1. The car suddenly magged out of control on the icy road.
2. After the power outage, the lights magged back on, illuminating the entire room.
3. He was so engrossed in the book that time magged away without him noticing.
4. Her voice magged through the crowd, drawing everyone's attention to the stage.
5. As the fireworks exploded, the colors magged brilliantly against the night sky.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/magged>