

MAGISTERIAL

Meaning: Magisterial: possessing authority or dignity; commanding respect or impressively authoritative in manner or style.

1. The professor delivered a magisterial lecture that captivated the entire auditorium.
2. Her magisterial presence commanded respect from everyone in the room.
3. The judge issued a magisterial ruling that set a precedent for future cases.
4. His magisterial tone left no room for doubt about his authority on the subject.
5. The book offers a magisterial overview of the historical events that shaped the region.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/magisterial>