

MAGISTERIALNESS

Meaning: Magisterialness refers to the quality of having an authoritative, commanding presence or demeanor that inspires respect and confidence.

1. Her magisterialness in the courtroom commanded the respect of everyone present.
2. The professor's magisterialness was evident in her comprehensive lectures and authoritative presence.
3. Despite his youth, he carried a certain magisterialness that made his opinions highly regarded.
4. The novel's protagonist embodied a magisterialness that captivated readers and set her apart from others.
5. In her magisterialness, she expertly navigated complex discussions with ease and clarity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/magisterialness>