

MAGNET

Meaning: A magnet is an object that produces a magnetic field, attracting certain metals such as iron.

1. The magnet attracted all the metal objects on the table.
2. Scientists use a powerful magnet to conduct experiments in the lab.
3. She wore a necklace with a small magnet embedded in the pendant.
4. The fridge door closed securely thanks to the strong magnet inside.
5. A compass relies on the Earth's magnetic field and its internal magnet to point north.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/magnet>