

MAGNETICIAN

Meaning: A magnetician is a specialist or expert in the study and application of magnetic fields and their properties.

1. The magnetician demonstrated his skills by creating intricate patterns with iron filings.
2. As a magnetician, she specialized in understanding the properties of magnetic fields.
3. During the science fair, the young magnetician captivated the audience with his experiments.
4. The magnetician's latest invention promised to revolutionize how we use magnets in everyday life.
5. With years of experience, the magnetician was sought after for consultations in various industries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/magnetician>