

MAGNETIZE

Meaning: To magnetize means to cause a material to acquire magnetic properties or to attract and influence others strongly.

1. The scientist explained how certain materials can magnetize when exposed to a strong magnetic field.
2. Her passion for the project seemed to magnetize her colleagues, drawing them into her vision.
3. The coach aimed to magnetize the team's spirit, inspiring them to perform at their best during the championship.
4. As he spoke about his travels, his enthusiasm began to magnetize the attention of everyone in the room.
5. The new advertising campaign was designed to magnetize potential customers and boost sales significantly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/magnetize>