

MAIDENLIKE

Meaning: Maidenlike: exhibiting qualities of innocence, purity, and youthful charm typically associated with a young girl or maiden.

1. Her maidenlike charm captivated everyone at the gala.
2. The novel's protagonist exuded a maidenlike innocence that drew readers in.
3. With her maidenlike grace, she danced across the stage, enchanting the audience.
4. He admired her maidenlike spirit, untouched by the harsh realities of life.
5. The painting depicted a maidenlike figure, radiating purity and hope.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/maidenlike>