

MAIDENLY

Meaning: Maidenly refers to the qualities or characteristics associated with a young, innocent, or modest woman, often evoking grace and shyness.

1. She walked with a maidenly grace that captivated everyone in the room.
2. The maidenly blush on her cheeks revealed her shyness in front of the crowd.
3. With her maidenly charm, she enchanted the audience during her performance.
4. Her maidenly demeanor made her stand out among the more experienced candidates.
5. In the quaint village, the maidenly traditions were cherished and passed down through generations.
6. The maidenly grace of the young dancer captivated the entire audience.
7. Her maidenly demeanor shone through as she spoke with sincerity and kindness.
8. He admired her maidenly modesty, which set her apart from the others in the room.
9. In the midst of chaos, she retained a maidenly composure that inspired those around her.
10. The novel's protagonist embodied a maidenly charm that drew readers into her world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/maidenly>