

MAIHEM

Meaning: 'MAIHEM' refers to a state of chaotic disorder or confusion, often characterized by uproar and tumult.

1. The party descended into complete mahem when the unexpected guest arrived.
2. Amidst the mahem of the crowd, I lost sight of my friends.
3. She thrived in the mahem of the city, finding inspiration in every corner.
4. Their debate turned into mahem as emotions ran high and voices escalated.
5. In the mahem of the storm, we sought shelter until it passed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mahem>