

MAIL-SHELL

Meaning: A mail-shell is a protective cover or casing, often decorative, used to safeguard items, such as documents, during transport or exposure to elements.

1. The mail-shell was carefully crafted to protect delicate documents during transit.
2. After the storm, the mail-shell washed up on the beach, revealing its colorful design.
3. She stored her important letters inside a vintage mail-shell, adding a touch of nostalgia.
4. The artist used a mail-shell as inspiration for her latest sculpture, blending form and function.
5. In the digital age, the traditional mail-shell still holds a charm that many appreciate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mail-shell>