

MAINPERNOR

Meaning: Mainpernor: a person who is responsible for managing and overseeing an estate or property, particularly in relation to its land and resources.

1. The mainpernor of the estate was responsible for managing the land and its resources.
2. As the mainpernor, she had the authority to make decisions regarding the farming operations.
3. Historically, a mainpernor would often be a trusted advisor to the landowner, ensuring the estate's prosperity.
4. In the absence of the owner, the mainpernor stepped in to handle negotiations with the tenants.
5. Local traditions often dictated the duties and responsibilities of the mainpernor in rural communities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mainpernor>