

MAKING

Meaning: Making refers to the process of creating or preparing something, often involving careful planning or assembly.

1. Making a cake from scratch requires patience and attention to detail.
2. She is making plans for a surprise party to celebrate his birthday.
3. The artist is making progress on her latest painting, adding vibrant colors.
4. Making decisions can often be challenging, especially under pressure.
5. He found joy in making music, expressing himself through every note.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/making>