

MALCONFORMATION

Meaning: Malconformation refers to an abnormal or irregular formation or structure, often resulting in functional or aesthetic issues.

1. Malconformation of the spine can lead to serious health issues if left untreated.
2. The architect was concerned that the malconformation of the building's design would compromise its structural integrity.
3. Researchers are studying the effects of genetic malconformation on the development of certain diseases.
4. After examining the child's x-rays, the doctor diagnosed a malconformation that required immediate intervention.
5. The artist used malconformation in her sculptures to challenge traditional notions of beauty and symmetry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/malconformation>