

MALCONTENT

Meaning: Malcontent: a person who is dissatisfied or rebellious, often expressing discontent with the status quo or seeking change.

1. The malcontent stirred unrest among the workers, demanding better conditions.
2. Despite the lavish lifestyle, he remained a malcontent, always yearning for more.
3. Her constant complaints revealed her malcontent with the current state of affairs.
4. The malcontent group organized protests to voice their dissatisfaction with the government.
5. Even in moments of joy, his malcontent demeanor cast a shadow over the celebration.
6. The malcontent in the group voiced his dissatisfaction at every meeting.
7. Despite the success of the project, there remained a malcontent who stirred up trouble.
8. Her malcontent attitude during the celebration dampened the overall mood.
9. The malcontent often criticized the leadership but never offered any solutions.
10. In times of unrest, the malcontent can easily become a rallying point for dissent.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/malcontent>