

MALEADMINISTRATION

Meaning: Male administration refers to a governing or managerial group predominantly composed of men, often implying a lack of gender diversity in leadership roles.

1. The male administration in the organization has been criticized for its lack of diversity.
2. During the meeting, the male administration presented their new policies with confidence.
3. Many felt that the male administration overlooked the contributions of female staff members.
4. The appointment of a female leader signaled a shift away from the traditional male administration.
5. Concerns were raised about the transparency of decisions made by the male administration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/maleadministration>