

MALEFACTION

Meaning: Malefaction refers to an act of wrongdoing or evil, particularly in a legal or moral context.

1. The detective uncovered evidence of malefaction hidden within the corporate files.
2. The community was shaken by the malefaction that had occurred in their quiet neighborhood.
3. Despite his charming demeanor, he was responsible for a series of malefactions that went unnoticed for years.
4. The report detailed the malefaction committed by the organization, leading to public outrage.
5. She was determined to expose the malefaction that had plagued the town for far too long.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/malefaction>