

MALFORMATION

Meaning: Malformation refers to an abnormal or irregular formation or structure of a body part, often resulting from genetic or environmental factors.

1. The doctor explained that the child's malformation was due to a genetic disorder.
2. Researchers are studying the effects of environmental factors on the development of malformations in embryos.
3. Despite the malformation of his limb, he excelled in sports and inspired many others.
4. Surgical intervention can often correct physical malformations and improve a patient's quality of life.
5. The documentary highlighted cases of rare malformations and the challenges faced by affected individuals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/malformation>