

MALIC

Meaning: Malic refers to a sour or tart flavor characteristic of malic acid, commonly found in fruits like apples, which enhances the taste of food products.

1. The fruit had a distinctly malic flavor that added a refreshing tang to the dessert.
2. In chemistry, malic acid is often used to enhance the taste of various food products.
3. During the fermentation process, the winemaker noted a rise in malic acid levels in the grape juice.
4. Her malic wit often caught people off guard, leaving them both amused and slightly bewildered.
5. The tartness of the green apples was attributed to their high malic acid content.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/malic>