

MALODOR

Meaning: Malodor: a strong, unpleasant smell or odor.

1. The old, abandoned building emitted a malodor that made it apparent no one had been there for years.
2. After the unexpected rain, the stagnant pond released a malodor that filled the air with an unpleasant scent.
3. Despite her efforts to clean the fish tank, a persistent malodor lingered in the room.
4. The malodor of the compost pile was overwhelming, yet it signaled the richness of the soil.
5. He wrinkled his nose at the malodor coming from the trash bin, realizing it was time to take it out.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/malodor>