

MANDERIL

Meaning: Mandrill: a large, brightly colored primate (Mandrillus sphinx) native to the rainforests of central and western Africa, known for its distinctive facial coloration and social behavior.

1. The mandrill is known for its colorful facial features and impressive size among primates.
2. Researchers observed a mandrill troop foraging in the dense underbrush of the rainforest.
3. In the animal kingdom, the mandrill stands out due to its vibrant blue and red markings.
4. Visitors at the zoo were captivated by the playful antics of the young mandrills.
5. Conservationists are working tirelessly to protect the mandrill's habitat from deforestation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/manderil>