MANDRILL

Meaning: Mandrill: a large, colorful primate (Mandrillus sphinx) native to central Africa, noted for its distinctive facial coloration and size.

1. The mandrill is known for its vibrant facial coloration and impressive size among primates.
2. In the zoo, the mandrill captured the attention of visitors with its striking blue and red markings.
3. Researchers studied the social behaviors of the mandrill in its natural habitat to understand its complex communication.
4. Mandrills are native to the rainforests of central Africa, where they typically live in large troops.
5. The documentary showcased the mandrill's playful interactions and the strong bonds within its troop.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mandrill