

MANDUCABLE

Meaning: Manducable refers to substances, particularly food or plants, that are suitable for eating or capable of being chewed and consumed.

1. The chef emphasized the importance of using manducable ingredients for a satisfying meal.
2. In the wild, animals often seek out manducable plants to ensure their survival.
3. The nutritionist recommended a diet rich in manducable foods to promote better digestion.
4. Children are more likely to try new vegetables if they are prepared in a manducable form.
5. The botanist classified the species based on whether its leaves were manducable or not.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/manducable>