

MANDUCATE

Meaning: Manducate: to chew or eat food, especially in a manner typical of herbivorous animals.

1. The cow manducated the lush green grass in the pasture.
2. Birds manducate seeds and insects to sustain their energy.
3. In ancient times, humans had to manducate their food more thoroughly to aid digestion.
4. The biologist observed how the herbivores manducated their food in a systematic manner.
5. To manducate effectively, one must chew slowly and savor the flavors of the meal.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/manducate>