

MANDUCATORY

Meaning: Manducatory: relating to the act of eating or the manner in which food is consumed.

1. The manducatory rhythm of the traditional feast created a lively atmosphere.
2. Her manducatory habits included savoring each bite of her carefully prepared meal.
3. The chef emphasized the importance of manducatory practices in enjoying the full flavor of his dishes.
4. In the context of culinary art, the manducatory experience is as vital as the cooking itself.
5. He found a certain joy in the manducatory process of exploring new cuisines and flavors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/manducatory>