

MANHOLE

Meaning: A manhole is a covered opening in a street or pavement that provides access to underground utilities or drainage systems.

1. The city workers gathered around the open manhole to discuss the repairs needed.
2. During the heavy rain, water gushed from the manhole, causing concern among residents.
3. She accidentally dropped her phone into the manhole while trying to retrieve her keys.
4. The bright yellow cover on the manhole was a stark contrast to the gray pavement.
5. He warned his friends to be careful near the manhole, as it was left uncovered.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/manhole>