

MANIACAL

Meaning: Maniacal: exhibiting extreme enthusiasm or madness, often characterized by uncontrollable excitement or obsession, typically in a negative or sinister context.

1. The scientist's maniacal laughter echoed through the empty laboratory after he achieved his groundbreaking experiment.
2. In the thriller, the maniacal villain plotted to take over the city, leaving chaos in his wake.
3. Her maniacal obsession with perfection often drove her colleagues to the brink of madness.
4. The maniacal energy of the crowd at the concert was palpable, fueling the band's electrifying performance.
5. He had a maniacal glint in his eyes as he revealed his outrageous plan to the unsuspecting audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/maniacal>