

MANIPULAR

Meaning: To manipulate or skillfully handle something, such as colors or emotions, to achieve a desired effect.

1. The artist knew how to manipular colors to create stunning visual effects.
2. In her speech, she tried to manipular the audience's emotions to gain support for her cause.
3. He was skilled enough to manipular the data, presenting it in a way that favored his argument.
4. Many politicians attempt to manipular public opinion through strategic messaging.
5. The magician could manipular cards in a way that left the audience completely bewildered.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/manipular>