

MANLING

Meaning: Manling (noun): A young male human, often used in fantasy contexts to denote a young man or boy.

1. The young manling was eager to prove himself during the festival.
2. In the realm of fantasy, the manling displayed remarkable courage against the odds.
3. As dusk fell, the manling wandered through the enchanted forest, lost in thought.
4. The villagers revered the manling for his kindness and unwavering spirit.
5. With each challenge he faced, the manling grew stronger and braver.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/manling>