

MANNITIC

Meaning: Mannitic refers to a type of sugar alcohol derived from mannitol, often discussed in scientific contexts regarding its properties and effects, such as sweetness.

1. Mannitic is often used in scientific discussions about sugar alcohols and their properties.
2. The researchers noted that the mannitic content of the sample could influence its sweetness.
3. When examining the crystallization process, the presence of mannitic was significant.
4. In food science, mannitic is sometimes added to enhance flavor without increasing caloric intake.
5. The production of mannitic through fermentation has gained attention in sustainable bioprocessing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mannitic>