MANTRAP

Meaning: A mantrap is a device or trap designed to capture or deter intruders, often involving mechanisms that ensnare or confine them.

1. The detective set up a mantrap to catch the burglar red-handed.
2. In the heart of the forest, the old cabin was surrounded by a clever mantrap that deterred intruders.
3. The security team installed a mantrap at the entrance to the museum to protect the valuable exhibits.
4. She felt a rush of adrenaline as she narrowly escaped the mantrap designed to ensnare thieves.
5. The engineer explained how the mantrap operated, ensuring that only authorized personnel could pass through.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mantrap