

MANUFACTORY

Meaning: Manufactory: a building or place where goods are manufactured or produced, often on a large scale.

1. The old manufactory was repurposed into a vibrant art studio.
2. Employees at the manufactory worked tirelessly to meet the high demand for their products.
3. After years of decline, the local manufactory finally started to thrive again.
4. Innovations in technology have transformed the traditional manufactory into a modern facility.
5. The architect designed the new manufactory with sustainability and efficiency in mind.
6. The old manufactories in the region have been repurposed into modern art studios.
7. During the Industrial Revolution, many manufactories sprang up to meet the growing demand for textiles.
8. The city's manufactories are known for their innovative approaches to sustainable production.
9. He worked tirelessly in the manufactories, hoping to save enough money for his family's future.
10. The rise of technology has transformed how traditional manufactories operate today.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/manufactory>