

MANUFACTURING

Meaning: Manufacturing refers to the process of producing goods on a large scale using machinery, labor, and various materials, often involving automation and innovation within an industrial sector.

1. Manufacturing processes have become increasingly automated in recent years.
2. The manufacturing sector plays a crucial role in the economy by providing jobs and innovation.
3. Sustainability is an important consideration in modern manufacturing techniques.
4. Advancements in technology are transforming traditional manufacturing methods into more efficient systems.
5. The company is investing in new manufacturing facilities to meet rising consumer demand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/manufacturing>