

MANURABLE

Meaning: Manurable: capable of being enriched or improved with manure or organic matter for enhanced fertility.

1. The farmer appreciated the manurable quality of the soil, which promised a bountiful harvest.
2. After years of neglect, the garden finally regained its manurable condition with proper care and compost.
3. Researchers are studying various plants to determine which are most effective in enhancing manurable attributes in the soil.
4. The addition of organic matter significantly improved the manurable aspects of the farmland.
5. Understanding what makes soil manurable is crucial for sustainable agricultural practices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/manurable>