

MANUREMENT

Meaning: Manurement refers to the application of manure or organic matter to soil to enhance its fertility and support plant growth.

1. The manurement of the fields was essential for ensuring a bountiful harvest.
2. Farmers often rely on organic manurement to improve soil fertility and structure.
3. After years of neglect, the manurement practices were revamped to restore the land's productivity.
4. The research study highlighted the benefits of using manurement over chemical fertilizers.
5. Sustainable agriculture emphasizes the importance of proper manurement techniques in preserving the environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/manurement>