

MARAUDER

Meaning: A marauder is a person who roams in search of plunder or victims, often engaging in acts of theft or violence.

1. The marauder crept through the shadows, searching for unsuspecting victims.
2. In the chaos of war, the marauder's reign of terror struck fear into the hearts of the villagers.
3. Legends spoke of a marauder who once plundered the riches of an entire kingdom.
4. As the sun set, the marauder's eyes glinted with greed under the dim light.
5. The ancient ruins became a hideout for the marauder and his band of thieves.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marauder>