

MARBLED

Meaning: Marbled: having a pattern or coloration that resembles the swirls and variations of colors found in marble, often used to describe artistic or decorative effects.

1. The artist's latest sculpture was marbled with shades of blue and green, creating a stunning visual effect.
2. She admired the marbled paper, which added a unique touch to her handmade journal.
3. The cake was beautifully marbled with chocolate and vanilla batter, making it irresistible.
4. As the sun set, the sky turned a marbled hue of pink and orange, captivating everyone on the beach.
5. The old building featured marbled columns that reflected its grandeur and history.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marbled>