

MARBLEIZE

Meaning: To marbleize means to create a marbled effect on a surface or material by mixing colors in a way that produces swirling patterns.

1. The artist decided to marbleize the surface of the table to give it a unique, flowing design.
2. In her pottery class, she learned how to marbleize clay to create stunning, colorful patterns.
3. The architect wanted to marbleize the columns to enhance the grandeur of the building's entrance.
4. He used a special technique to marbleize the cake batter, making it visually striking as well as delicious.
5. For her home decor project, she chose to marbleize the cushions to match the elegant aesthetic of the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marbleize>