

MARBLY

Meaning: Marbly: resembling or having the appearance of marble, often characterized by swirls or a polished finish.

1. The countertop had a marbly finish that added elegance to the kitchen.
2. Her eyes sparkled with a marbly hue, reminiscent of swirling ocean waves.
3. The artist chose a marbly texture for the background to enhance the vibrant colors of the painting.
4. As they walked through the park, they admired the marbly patterns formed by the sunlight on the path.
5. The luxurious bathroom featured marbly tiles that created a spa-like atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marbly>