

MARCANTANT

Meaning: MARCANTANT (adjective): Strikingly noticeable or attention-grabbing; captivating in presence or appearance.

1. The artist's latest work was remarkably marcantant, drawing attention from everyone in the gallery.
2. Her marcantant personality lit up the room, making even the shyest guests feel at ease.
3. The marcantant colors of the sunset painted the sky in vivid hues, captivating all who saw it.
4. He had a marcantant style that set him apart from his peers, effortlessly blending elegance with boldness.
5. The marcantant aroma of freshly baked bread filled the air, inviting passersby to stop and indulge.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marcantant>