

MARCH-WARD

Meaning: 'MARCH-WARD' refers to the act of moving or progressing through distinct sections or areas, typically in an organized or systematic manner.

1. The soldiers marched ward by ward, ensuring every area was secure.
2. In the spring, the community organizes a parade that marches ward by ward through the town.
3. The volunteers decided to march ward by ward, distributing food and supplies to those in need.
4. As the campaign progressed, the team felt it was essential to march ward by ward to reach every voter.
5. During the festival, the children dressed in colorful costumes and marched ward by ward, spreading joy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/march-ward>