

MARCH

Meaning: March (verb): to walk in a structured, rhythmic manner, often as part of a procession or parade.

1. The parade will march down Main Street on Saturday morning.
2. In many countries, March marks the beginning of spring.
3. They plan to march for climate change awareness this weekend.
4. She carefully calculated the time it would take to march to the summit.
5. The students will march to the beat of the drum during the concert.
6. The students will march in the parade to celebrate the national holiday.
7. Spring is just around the corner, making March a month of renewal and hope.
8. Every year, we plan a family trip to the mountains in March when the weather is milder.
9. The sound of drums filled the air as the troops began to march in formation.
10. I always look forward to the blooming flowers that begin to appear in March.
11. Every year, we look forward to the flowers blooming in March.
12. He decided to march forward despite the challenges he faced.
13. The calendar flipped to March, bringing a fresh sense of hope and renewal.
14. During the protest, thousands gathered to march for climate justice.
15. The soldiers will march in formation during the parade.
16. As spring approaches, flowers begin to bloom in March.
17. We decided to march for climate change awareness this weekend.
18. Her birthday falls on the first day of March, which is always exciting.
19. The sound of drums filled the air as the band began to march down the street.
20. The children eagerly practiced their routine for the upcoming March parade.
21. As the flowers began to bloom, the town celebrated the arrival of March with a festival.
22. They decided to march in solidarity for the cause, carrying banners and chanting slogans.

23. The sound of drums filled the air as the troops prepared to march into the city square.
 24. With the beginning of March, the days grew longer and the weather slowly warmed up.
 25. The children will march in the parade to celebrate the holiday.
 26. As the deadline approached, we had to march forward with our project plans.
 27. She felt a surge of excitement as she watched the soldiers march in perfect formation.
 28. Every year, we gather to march for peace and raise awareness about global issues.
 29. In March, the flowers begin to bloom, signaling the end of winter's chill.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/march>