

MARCHING

Meaning: Marching refers to the act of walking with a steady, rhythmic pace, often in formation or as part of a group, typically for a purpose such as a demonstration or military display.

1. The soldiers were marching in perfect unison down the main boulevard.
2. She felt a sense of pride as she joined the crowd marching for equality.
3. The children were marching in a line, holding hands and singing songs.
4. He could hear the distant sound of drums as the band began marching into the parade.
5. Marching through the streets, the protesters demanded justice and change.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marching>