

MARCHIONESS

Meaning: A marchioness is a noblewoman of high rank, typically the wife or widow of a marquess, often involved in social events and gatherings.

1. The marchioness arrived at the gala dressed in an exquisite gown that turned heads.
2. At the royal garden party, the marchioness graciously mingled with the other distinguished guests.
3. Rumors circulated about the marchioness's lavish lifestyle and her extravagant parties.
4. As the new marchioness of the estate, she took her responsibilities very seriously.
5. The portrait of the marchioness hung prominently in the grand hall, capturing her elegance and poise.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/marchioness>